La Grippe.

In eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, Gay Paris, to show off her city fine, invited to kiss every one, and to give to them the grip.

Not content with the many sights, Like the Eiffel tower and brilliant lights, They would show to strangers other sights, But would say nothing about la grippe.

The motive now we all can see, In whatever crime we chance to be, Whether upon the land or sea, We will never forget la grippe.

For when we chance a friend to meet, Whether at home or upon the street, We are sure to say as we take a seat, How comes on that la grippe?

Now if I could write my ideas down, And strew that tower upon the ground, I'd throw upon Paris an ugly frown For giving me la grippe.

TO CAPTURE THE OHIO SENATE.—It is rumored in Columbus, Ohio, that the republican leaders of the State have entered into a conspiracy with Chairman Quay to destroy the efficiency of the democratic majority in the legislature. Should the democrats lose a single member of the Senate all hopes of redistributing the State for Congressional purposes would be at an end. The loss of one democrat is the loss of a quorum, and they would then be unable to confirm a single nomination of Gov. Campbell. In the House two members are already dead, leaving the democrats but 58. Of these Brown, of Hancock, cannot be present owing to illness. That leaves the democracy with but a bare quorum, altogether too small to do the party any great good.

In the face of these facts the republican leaders have put their heads together, urged on by the republican Congressmen of that State, and have hatched the scheme to raise a large boodle fund with which to carry the Fourth Senatorial district and elect the successor of Judge Ashburn.

MEDICINAL.

SKIN CANCER.

Several years ago I was called to see a colored woman who had a malignant form of cancer on her foot. The cancerous growth was on the prescribed treatment, and the toe and one side of the foot were at length entirely away. The patient could not have survived much longer, but I commenced the use of Swift's specific, and it cured her sound well. That was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease. I regard Swift's specific as most excellent medicine for blood diseases, as its tendency is to drive out the poison.

Matherville, Miss. Wm. E. Stage, M.D.

CANCER OF THE TONGUE.

For three or four years I was eating cancer on my tongue and made a considerable hole in it. I became alarmed at its progress, and went to Atlanta for treatment. The result was that I commenced the use of Swift's Specific, and the sore was soon gone, without a trace of it left. (Thompson, Ga., Jan. 24, '89. A. Lewis.)
